

Building tomorrow's minds :

On the shoulders of teaching giants in the bush capital

I am thrilled to nominate Mary for the prestigious title of Teaching GIANT. As our Arts teacher, Mary has demonstrated exceptional dedication and creativity, making a positive impact on our school community. Her expertise spans music, dance, and drama, and she masterfully integrates these disciplines into a cohesive and inspiring curriculum.

Mary's commitment goes beyond the classroom. She orchestrated the school musical, a monumental task that required meticulous planning, coordination, and an unwavering passion for the arts. This production was a resounding success, involving students from every grade level and uniting the entire school in a celebration of creativity and collaboration. Mary wrote and directed the production.

Her teaching style is both dynamic and inclusive, nurturing each student's unique talents while fostering a profound appreciation for the arts.

Mary's classroom is a haven of artistic exploration, where students are encouraged to take risks and express themselves freely. Her influence is evident in the growing confidence and enthusiasm of her students, who consistently produce remarkable work.

Mary's tireless efforts and boundless energy have elevated our arts program and enriched our school culture. Her ability to inspire and engage students, coupled with her impressive organisational skills and creative vision, truly makes her a teaching giant. For her extraordinary contributions and the transformative impact she has had on our students and school, Mary is more than deserving of this recognition.
