

Building tomorrow's minds :

On the shoulders of teaching giants in the bush capital

Crystal Hillier has been an integral member of Ngunnawal Primary School since 2020, consistently going above and beyond to create a nurturing and inclusive environment for her students. Her classroom is a place where every child feels valued, respected, and empowered to reach their full potential. Crystal's deep commitment to inclusion is evident in her use of differentiated teaching strategies that cater to the diverse learning needs of her students.

Whether modifying lesson plans, incorporating assistive technology, or developing individualised learning plans, she ensures that every student can engage with the curriculum in meaningful and accessible ways.

Crystal's dedication extends beyond the classroom, where she serves as a strong advocate for her students. She takes the time to observe and identify areas of need, collaborating closely with parents, support staff, and external agencies to create a holistic support system. This collaborative approach ensures that all students receive the assistance they need to thrive.

In addition to being an outstanding classroom teacher, Crystal has volunteered for several leadership initiatives, contributing her voice and expertise to enhance teaching and learning experiences across the school. Her willingness to take on leadership roles demonstrates her commitment to not only her students but to the entire Ngunnawal school community.

Crystal embodies the qualities of an exemplary educator—relentless commitment, innovative practices, and a deep alignment with the Australian Curriculum.

Her strong work ethic and dedication to fostering both individual and school-wide success make her an invaluable asset to Ngunnawal Primary School.
